

Sample School-Based English Project Proposals

Six proposals you can adapt and hand to your principal, each in the same simple format.

How to use these

Replace the general wording with your school's details. Dates, venues and costs are left for you to fill in, because they depend on your school; check prices locally before you submit a budget. These proposals were written by RCF English and may be copied and adapted freely.

1. English Only Day

Section	What to write
Project title	English Only Day
Submitted by	Name, subject (English) and school
Submitted to	The Principal, through the relevant sectional head
Background	Many pupils understand English but rarely use it outside the English period. One day a week or a month when English is spoken throughout the school gives them a real reason to use it.
Objectives	To give pupils regular practice in everyday spoken English; to build confidence; to involve all staff in supporting English.
Target group	All pupils from the selected grades, with teachers and non-academic staff.
Proposed date and duration	To be decided with the school administration and entered in the school calendar.
Venue	To be decided (for example, the school hall or classrooms).
Activities	A short English assembly; English announcements; a list of useful phrases displayed in each classroom; English greetings at the gate; a small reward for classes that use English well.
Committee and responsibilities	Teacher in charge; English teachers to prepare phrase lists; prefects to encourage English use; class teachers to record participation.
Resources needed	Phrase charts, a notice board, simple certificates or badges.
Estimated budget	List each item with quantity and a local price you have checked. Leave out anything the school already has.
Source of funds	For example, school development funds, class funds or sponsorship. Confirm with the principal.
Evaluation	Class participation records; a short pupil questionnaire after each month.
Expected outcomes	Pupils use more spoken English and feel less afraid of making mistakes.
Approval	Signatures and dates: teacher in charge, sectional head, principal.

2. English Day

Section	What to write
Project title	English Day
Submitted by	Name, subject (English) and school
Submitted to	The Principal, through the relevant sectional head
Background	An annual English Day lets pupils show their English skills to parents and the school community.

Section	What to write
Objectives	To give pupils a stage for English; to discover talent; to raise interest in English.
Target group	Pupils of all grades, parents and staff.
Proposed date and duration	To be decided with the school administration and entered in the school calendar.
Venue	To be decided (for example, the school hall or classrooms).
Activities	Inter-house or inter-class competitions (recitation, speech, singing, drama, spelling); a final programme with the winners; an exhibition of pupils' written work.
Committee and responsibilities	Organising committee; competition judges; stage and sound; hospitality; publicity.
Resources needed	Hall, sound system, certificates, trophies or prizes, decorations.
Estimated budget	List each item with quantity and a local price you have checked. Leave out anything the school already has.
Source of funds	For example, school development funds, class funds or sponsorship. Confirm with the principal.
Evaluation	Participation numbers, feedback from parents and staff, a short report with photographs.
Expected outcomes	Greater interest in English and a list of talented pupils for zonal competitions.
Approval	Signatures and dates: teacher in charge, sectional head, principal.

3. Class Reading Programme

Section	What to write
Project title	Class Reading Programme
Submitted by	Name, subject (English) and school
Submitted to	The Principal, through the relevant sectional head
Background	Many pupils read very little in English. A short daily or weekly reading time with a class reading corner builds the reading habit.
Objectives	To build the reading habit; to improve vocabulary and comprehension.
Target group	Pupils of the selected grades.
Proposed date and duration	To be decided with the school administration and entered in the school calendar.
Venue	To be decided (for example, the school hall or classrooms).
Activities	A class reading corner with graded books; a regular reading time; a simple reading log; a monthly best-reader recognition.
Committee and responsibilities	Teacher in charge; class teachers; librarian; pupil reading monitors.
Resources needed	Graded readers, a shelf or box, reading logs.
Estimated budget	List each item with quantity and a local price you have checked. Leave out anything the school already has.
Source of funds	For example, school development funds, class funds or sponsorship. Confirm with the principal.
Evaluation	Reading logs; a short reading test at the start and end of the term.

Section	What to write
Expected outcomes	Pupils read more and show better comprehension.
Approval	Signatures and dates: teacher in charge, sectional head, principal.

4. English Wall Newspaper

Section	What to write
Project title	English Wall Newspaper
Submitted by	Name, subject (English) and school
Submitted to	The Principal, through the relevant sectional head
Background	A wall newspaper gives pupils a real audience for their writing.
Objectives	To encourage writing; to develop teamwork; to display pupils' work.
Target group	Pupils of Grades 6 to 11.
Proposed date and duration	To be decided with the school administration and entered in the school calendar.
Venue	To be decided (for example, the school hall or classrooms).
Activities	Each class or group produces a wall newspaper in turn with news, notices, stories, poems and puzzles.
Committee and responsibilities	Teacher in charge; class editors; a design team for each issue.
Resources needed	Notice board, paper, markers.
Estimated budget	List each item with quantity and a local price you have checked. Leave out anything the school already has.
Source of funds	For example, school development funds, class funds or sponsorship. Confirm with the principal.
Evaluation	Quality of issues; number of pupils contributing.
Expected outcomes	More pupils write in English and take pride in their work.
Approval	Signatures and dates: teacher in charge, sectional head, principal.

5. English Literary Association

Section	What to write
Project title	English Literary Association
Submitted by	Name, subject (English) and school
Submitted to	The Principal, through the relevant sectional head
Background	An English club gives interested pupils regular opportunities beyond the classroom.
Objectives	To provide regular English activities; to prepare pupils for competitions; to develop leadership.
Target group	Interested pupils of all grades.
Proposed date and duration	To be decided with the school administration and entered in the school calendar.
Venue	To be decided (for example, the school hall or classrooms).

Section	What to write
Activities	Regular meetings with debates, quizzes, drama, film discussions and guest speakers; election of office bearers.
Committee and responsibilities	Teacher in charge; president, secretary and treasurer elected by members.
Resources needed	Meeting room, stationery, a membership register.
Estimated budget	List each item with quantity and a local price you have checked. Leave out anything the school already has.
Source of funds	For example, school development funds, class funds or sponsorship. Confirm with the principal.
Evaluation	Attendance, activities completed, competition results.
Expected outcomes	An active group of pupils who lead English activities in the school.
Approval	Signatures and dates: teacher in charge, sectional head, principal.

6. Spelling Bee and English Quiz

Section	What to write
Project title	Spelling Bee and English Quiz
Submitted by	Name, subject (English) and school
Submitted to	The Principal, through the relevant sectional head
Background	Competitions make vocabulary and general knowledge practice enjoyable.
Objectives	To improve spelling and vocabulary; to encourage healthy competition.
Target group	Pupils of the selected grades, by class or house.
Proposed date and duration	To be decided with the school administration and entered in the school calendar.
Venue	To be decided (for example, the school hall or classrooms).
Activities	Class-level rounds followed by a school final; word lists given in advance.
Committee and responsibilities	Teacher in charge; question setters; judges; timekeepers.
Resources needed	Word lists, question sheets, a timer, certificates.
Estimated budget	List each item with quantity and a local price you have checked. Leave out anything the school already has.
Source of funds	For example, school development funds, class funds or sponsorship. Confirm with the principal.
Evaluation	Participation and scores across rounds.
Expected outcomes	Better spelling and more interest in words.
Approval	Signatures and dates: teacher in charge, sectional head, principal.

Complete lesson plan books are coming

These are simple sample plans. Complete lesson plan books for every grade will be part of RCF Premium Resources, which will be ready in the future. See RCF Premium Resources

